Expectations of a fly-in participant:

- Participate in a pre-fly-in conference call explaining the fly-in.
- Arrange travel to Washington, D.C. and share a room with another participant during the fly-in, Sept. 8 - 11, 2019. Travel accommodations will be reimbursed to those invited to participate.
- Attend scheduled meetings and appointments with Legislators and other Government officials. This will require significant walking each day.
- Speak on the talking points provided by NFU and discussed within New England Farmers Union.
- Continue your engagement with New England Farmers Union priorities by encouraging others to join the organization and attend events.

The New England Farmers Union Board of Directors determine the number of participants that will attend fly-in. Please submit this completed form along with a brief description telling us why attending fly-in would be important to you, to Abby Ferris at aferris@nfudc.org.
